Philip Urso's class is sure to get light bulbs clicking on. His Crash Course in Miracles podcasts are about to pass 700,000 downloads on iTunes. Often quoted by Eckhart Tolle, Wayne Dyer, and Marianne Williamson, A Course in Miracles (ACIM) is considered by many to be the mother ship of modern spirituality. But it is over 1,200 pages! What does it say? This program is a shortcut to understanding ACIM. Relationships, sickness and healing, what the miracle is, projection, how to distinguish your internal teacher, and more will be covered. This series of 3 classes is a great introduction for beginners and perfect for the curious yoga student or teacher.

Philip Urso

is a Master Baptiste yoga teacher. He assists Baron Baptiste at teacher-training bootcamps internationally and leads his own teacher-training certification programs. He owns and directs a Baptiste Affiliate studio, Salt Pond Yoga, in RI. Philip studies A Course in Miracles and offers two, five-star podcasts on iTunes: "A Crash Course in Miracles" and "Yoga Classes, Baptiste Power Vinyasa."

As a Yoga Teacher, Philip teaches presence-in-action. He plays Baptiste Sequence as if it's an obstacle course to presence. He will help you discover where and how you may abandon presence, and help you practice the quick path back. The goal is for you to go beyond presence – that is, to live in the energy of your inspired self.
